IN THIS MONTH OF MAY, when we are thinking about our mothers, consider how you can be of support to new moms: the Catholic Charities Moms Helping Moms Program is looking for positive role models to mentor pregnant or newly parenting mothers. With an average of just one hour a week, you can provide friendship, practical experience, emotional support, encouragement, parenting advice or transportation for new moms who may feel isolated or without support. Please contact Patty Anderson, at Catholic Charities Pregnancy Support & Adoption Services for more information at 503-238-5196, ext. 225.

LONELY ITEMS NEED TO GO HOME Is your kitchen missing some dishes? Did you wish you had an umbrella this week? Maybe you'll need your sunglasses sometime soon. Check our Lost and Found in the back of the church.

Urgency marks the beginning of Jesus' farewell discourse: "now...soon...not much longer..."
Soon Jesus will no longer be with his disciples. They must pass from the experience of his bodily presence to faith in his invisible presence. To experience in faith a presence in absence is the whole of Christian life until the parousia.*

Through the mutual love between the disciples the permanent presence of the Risen One is assured and manifested in the world. This mutual love characterizes our history during the time between Jesus' departure and his final return.

Jesus' command to "love one another" is so simple that a child can understand it. It seems to make perfect sense. Jesus loves us; and we are to love others with that same love. In so doing, the world will recognize us as followers of Christ. It is so simple to say, yet so difficult to do. We do love each other, but nevertheless we strive with one another. We listen to each other, but too often we are so intent upon our own way of doing things that we fail to hear what others are saying. But those three little words keep calling us back to the simple challenge of the Gospel message: "Love one another."
