Genuine authority realizes that it can exist only in the service of Him who alone has authority. Genuine authority knows that it is bound in the strictest sense by the saying of Jesus: "One is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren" (Matt.23:8). The Church does not need brilliant personalities but faithful servants of Jesus and the brethren. Not in the former but in the latter is the lack.

The Church will place its confidence only in the simple servant of the Word of Jesus Christ because it knows that then it will be guided, not according to human wisdom and human conceit, but by the Word of the Good Shepherd.

FAMILY FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus said "I am the good shepherd." Jesus goes on to tell how a good shepherd will lay down his life to protect the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and does not own the sheep will run away and leave the sheep if a wolf attacks the flock. The hired man works for money and will not risk his life for something that does not belong to him. Jesus goes on to say "I am the good shepherd, and I know my sheep and my sheep know me just like my Father knows me and I know my Father. I will give up my life for my sheep. I have other sheep that are not here but I must gather them and bring them together. They will hear my voice and come. Then there will be one flock, one shepherd."

Are you one of the sheep Jesus talks about?

How does it feel to have Jesus say he will lay down his life to protect his sheep?

Do others hear Jesus voice today? How can we help bring others to Jesus
