Jesus asks his Father for another Paraclete, who will remain with us and help keep the memory of Jesus alive. Paraclete is a term which comes from the Greek and signifies a legal advocate, one who speaks for us. It is only the loving acceptance of this Spirit of truth which allows us to love someone whom we know not by sight but through the testimony of others.

The Spirit of truth is the Church's creative memory. It enables us to enter into the mystery of Christ. Thus the Church takes part in the vital communion of Father and Son. This same Spirit inspires us to love Jesus, "in deed and in truth and not merely talk about it" (1 John 3:18).

The love of a Christian for the Master is not satisfied with words. The scriptures attest to the indissoluble bond between knowledge and moral life. To say that we know Christ without keeping his commandments is a lie. On the contrary, "whoever keeps his word, truly has the love of God been made perfect in him" (1 John 2:5). By living as Jesus lived, we already pass with him from death to life.

Reflection

*"If you love me, you will keep my commandments."
The more we know Jesus, the more we love him. Like the disciples of old, we may first be attracted to him by his divine authority, by his wisdom, by his compassion; but at some point, we love him as brother even as we worship him as Lord. And if we love him, Jesus says, we will keep his commandments: in other words, we will express our love not in words only, but in deeds of love for our neighbor. The Holy Spirit, who is called "Father of the poor," is there to remind us of these words of Jesus: "If you love me you will keep my commandments."*
