

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 19, 2014

ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY CHURCH

Happy Anniversary, Sacrosanctum Concilium!!

All are welcome! We are celebrating the 50th anniversary of "Sacrosanctum Concilium," Vatican Council Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy. Sacrosanctum Concilium famously turned the altar around to face the people and allowed Mass to be celebrated in native tongues. But much more than that . . .

- Would you like to know where we have come from, the course of Sacrosanctum has set us on, and where we are journeying to?
- According to Pope Francis, "Much still remains to be done for a correct and complete assimilation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy."

Father Dick Rutherford, CSC will take us on a tour through the century that led up to Sacrosanctum, from Pius X to Pope John XXIII, and then into the Council itself. Emerging out the other side of the Council, we will look at what from the Council has been achieved, from the times of Pope Paul VI and on up to Pope Francis.

2014 WORLD MISSION SUNDAY APPEAL – This weekend our parish will take a second collection for World Mission Sunday. By supporting the missions and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, his hope and peace.

POPE FRANCIS CHALLENGE – An anonymous donor gave $50,000 to Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East to build a home in honor of Pope Francis. His challenge to Portland: raise the additional funds needed to complete the home, and mobilize students from Catholic schools to volunteer and help build it! Pope Francis' commitment to social justice has reinvigorated the Catholic Church. This challenge from the anonymous donor is a special opportunity for both the Catholic and non-Catholic communities to build a home for a local family in need, while honoring Pope Francis' belief that "Work Confers Dignity." Be a part of honoring Pope Francis, while making an impact in Portland by rising to this challenge. To make a donation to the Pope Francis Challenge contact Erika Kennel at 503-287-9529 X16 or Erika@habitatportlandmetro.org. For more information contact Amanda Adams at 503-287-9529 X28 or aadams@habitatportlandmetro.org.

ALL SOULS MEMORIAL MASS will be offered at Gethsemani Catholic Cemetery on Friday, October 31st at 2:00 p.m. This Mass will be offered for all those who have died, particularly those members of our Catholic Community who have passed away during the last year. Refreshments will follow. For additional information, contact Mt. Calvary Catholic Cemetery at 503-292-6621.

WHO ARE THE PAULISTS?

How are they "different" from the Franciscans, the Jesuits, or Diocesan priests? Fr. Charlie Brunick, CSP will present Part 3 of a 3-part series next Sunday, October 26 to explain why the Paulist Priests are unique in their mission and goals. The presentation will be held at St. Philip Neri Church, SE 16th and Division Street, from 10:45 to 11:45 am following the 9:30 am Mass.

“Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, but give to God what is God’s.”

This clear-cut retort of Jesus does not claim to say all that must be said about Christian participation in civic life. We must take the passage as a whole in order to avoid two extremes: political systems which would co-opt the Church through favor and those which would exclude it by force. The Church for its part must avoid the temptation to give to God what is Caesar’s to use religion’s power to dominate society.

“Is it lawful to pay tax to the Emperor or not?” The adversaries of Jesus and the partisans of the Roman occupation here join forces to trap this Galilean who challenges the established order. In the volatile contest of a proud Judean nationalism which bitterly resents taxation as an ignominious sign of subjection to Rome, this is an explosive question. If Jesus refuses the tribute to Caesar, he places himself on the side of the violent revolutionaries. If he authorizes it, his religious integrity is compromised. These questioners who feign embarrassment are hypocrites. Their pockets are full of Caesar’s coins. In fact, they acknowledge the supreme power of the “Lord of Lords,” the Roman Emperor. Jesus eludes the trap. “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s but give to God what is God’s!” Jesus appeals to the Absolute who topples the idols of power

“Jesus Christ is Lord” (Philippians 2:11): this cry of primitive faith will forever deny Caesar’s claims to absolute divine power. It stands in judgment against the hypocrites who use political or religious ideologies to enslave humanity.

The Church fulfills a useful function, therefore, when, in its proclamation, it holds aloft the responsibility of man to engage in the multiple tasks of humanizing the world, in the kind of projects and programs enumerated in Gaudium et Spes, Pacem in Terris, Mater et Magistra, and the other social documents of our time. But the Church proclaims this as Gospel, not as ideology. Indeed, the Church proclaims the Gospel against the prevailing ideologies, i.e., those structures of thought which are self-absolutizing, which identify the future progress of mankind with their own specific programs and policies. The Church's eschatological preaching is that everything is to be placed underneath the reign of God and that there, within his Kingdom, genuine humanity can be achieved.
