CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS – This weekend there will be a second collection for Catholic Home Missions. CHM supports dioceses in the United States and its territories that lack the resources to provide basic pastoral ministry to the populations. Through annual grants, CHM funds catechesis, seminarian education, lay ministry training, Hispanic ministry, and other pastoral programs in needy dioceses. We thank you for supporting this important appeal, which will strengthen the Church at home

FOOD SUNDAY – Next Sunday is Food Sunday. Please bring some non-perishable food for the Immaculate Heart Parish Food Bank to help feed the hungry.

SIMPLE SUPPER COLLECTION will be taken next Sunday for the support of our two monthly dinners at Transition Projects. Baskets for your free will offering are at the entrances to the church.

THE EASTER EDITION OF THE WORD AMONG US is available in the gathering space of church. It contains the Mass readings from Easter through Pentecost along with daily meditations.

All Saints Catholic Church, 3847 NE Glisan Street, Portland 97232

Keynote Speaker: Kerry Webster, author of "Mercy in the City: How to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, visit the imprisoned, and keep your day job" and managing editor of America Magazine. Weber, a lay Catholic, explores the Works of Mercy in the real world.

Admission is free.

Genuine authority realizes that it can exist only in the service of Him who alone has authority. Genuine authority knows that it is bound in the strictest sense by the saying of Jesus: "One is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren" (Matthew 23:8). The Church does not need brilliant personalities but faithful servants of Jesus and the brethren. Not in the former but in the latter is the lack. The Church will place its confidence only in the simple servant of the Word of Jesus Christ because it knows that then it will be guided, not according to human wisdom and human conceit, but by the Word of the Good Shepherd.

(Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together, Harper & Row, 1954, p. 109)

Reflection

"Good Shepherd" Sunday provides an opportunity to reflect upon the care of the Shepherd, who "lays down his life for the sheep," and to critique what we are doing to promote the unity of the Church, so that "there will be one flock, one shepherd." The voice of the Shepherd echoes forth for all. While today has been named "World Day of Prayer for Vocations" - and pray we must for more young people to follow in the footsteps of the Shepherd - we must also pray for and work toward Christian unity. The recognition of Christ's presence in the world is lessened the more the flock is scattered.
