Reflection

Mark is very intentional in noting whom Jesus selects to accompany him on this journey of raising the dead girl to life. Jesus takes only the girl's mother and father with him into her room. This suggests familial intimacy around the girl's bedside. Jesus succeeds in raising the girl to new life and also, undoubtedly, in establishing a new household of faith in him—a family united in thanksgiving. Do you celebrate faith as a household, as the center of family life?
