

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 11, 2015

ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY CHURCH

"Good Teacher, what must I do to share in everlasting life?" The anonymous man of today's gospel expresses the ageless human hunger for life. He stands for all of us.

This man takes it for granted that eternal life is the fruit of a virtuous existence. He has always observed the commandments. He is unwittingly in a good position to be saved. But this man is still lacking something. It might even be said that he is lacking everything. We have given nothing to God if we are not ready to give it all. The love of Christ calls us to a total gift which is concretized in the call, "Come, follow me." This is a question neither of morality nor of asceticism, but of commitment to Jesus. It is no longer a question of "doing more," of distinguishing "precept" from "counsel." To follow Christ means all or nothing, your money or your life.
